Important Information

Duty of Disclosure

This Policy is subject to The Insurance Contracts Act 1984. Under that Act you have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before you take out insurance with us, you have a duty to tell us of everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision to insure you and to the terms of that insurance. If you are not sure whether something is relevant you should inform us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform us of those matters before you renew, extend, vary, or reinstate your contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters that:

- reduce the risk
- are common knowledge
- we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know
- we have indicated we do not want to know.

If you do not comply with your Duty of Disclosure, we may be entitled to:

- reduce our liability for any claim
- cancel the contract
- refuse to pay the claim
- avoid the contract from its beginning, if your non-disclosure was fraudulent.

Limitation or Exclusion of Rights Against Third Parties

This Policy provides that you must not limit or exclude your rights against a party from whom you might otherwise be able to recover in respect to the loss or damage - see Condition 5 of this Policy.

Interested Parties

This Policy provides that the cover provided by this Policy does not extend to an interest in the Dwelling that is not your interest - see Condition 6 of this Policy.

Privacy

Calliden respects your privacy and operates at all times in accordance with its privacy policy. This privacy notification provides a summary of how Calliden treats your privacy, and it is recommended that you read the policy in conjunction with this notice.

Calliden collects personal information to assess your request for insurance, to administer your policy, provide other insurance services as requested by you, and also to notify you about other Calliden services or promotions from time to time. At the time of collecting your information we will inform you of the purpose for the collection and the consequences if you choose not to provide the information.

In order to provide its insurance services Calliden may need to share your information with third parties including your agent or broker and Calliden's reinsurers and claims providers (for a full list see Calliden's privacy policy).

In accordance with Calliden's privacy policy you may obtain access at any time to information that Calliden or its service providers hold on you. Taxation Information

All references in this Policy to dollar amounts and the Contract price are inclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST).

If you are not registered for GST in the event of a claim we will reimburse you the GST component in addition to the amount that we pay. The amount that we are liable to pay under this Policy will be reduced by the amount of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim for the supply of goods or services covered by that payment.

If you are entitled to an input tax credit for the premium, you must inform us of the extent of that entitlement at or before the time you make a claim under this Policy. We will not indemnify you for any GST liability, fines or penalties that arise from or are attributable to your failure to notify us of your entitlement (or correct entitlement) to an input credit on the premium.

If you are liable to pay an excess under this Policy, the amount payable will be calculated after deduction of any input tax credit that you are or may be entitled to claim on payment of the excess.
